LOS ANGELES, June 12, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Cinedigm \(NASDAQ: CIDM\) announced today the launch of SVOD services for three of the Company's most popular digital-first networks—the family friendly faith-based Dove Channel, the fact-focused Docurama, and the genre-infused CONtv—on The Roku Channel. SVOD services for CONtv, Dove, and Docurama are available in the Roku Channel Store. The Roku Channel users can add the networks to their lineup for $4.99 a month for each. Dove Channel was created as a response to high consumer demand for family-friendly content, providing viewers with an extensive selection of uplifting and enlightening values-based films, children's programs, documentaries, and series. All content featured on Dove Channel meets the high standards of The Dove Foundation and its esteemed Faith & Family Dove Seals Of Approval—serving as an invaluable resource for families across the country for over 28 years. Highlights of Dove Channel's programming lineup include the long-running Canadian drama Heartland, Elizabeth Banks in Lovely Still, the animated adventure Rabbit, and William H. Macy and Brittany Snow in the faith-based drama Dial A Prayer, among many others.

CONtv is the leading digital-first entertainment network devoted exclusively to fans of epic monster movies, rarely seen series, and everything in-between. The network gives audiences access to hundreds of hours of content from an eclectic collection that puts the spotlight on elusive cult films and television shows, and celebrated genre movies ranging from sci-fi, horror, and fantasy, to anime, grindhouse, and martial arts action. Highlights include classics Hey Vern, It's Ernest!, and Angela Anaconda, as well as the beloved art tutorial The Joy Of Painting with Bob Ross, the thriller Open Windows, and Selena Gomez in the 2014 rock n' roll comedy Behaving Badly.
